We cannot judge a biography by its length
Nor by the number of pages in it
We must judge it by the richness of its contents Sometimes those unfinished are amongst the most poignant

We cannot judge a song by its duration
Nor by the number of its notes
We must judge it by the way it touches and lifts our souls
Sometimes the unfinished are amongst the most beautiful of symphonies

And when something has enriched your life
And when its melody lingers on in your heart

Is it unfinished?
Or is it endless?
